

Expository Reading and Writing Course (ERWC) 12

English options for seniors:

- English 12 CP
- Expository Reading and Writing Course (ERWC) 12
- Creative Writing
- Ethnic Literature and Studies
- English Language and Composition AP
- English Literature and Composition AP
- Business Communications

Quick Facts:

- Designed by the California State Universities to prepare high school seniors for college-level reading and writing.
- A college-preparatory A-G course
- Units comprised of non-fiction and fiction reading and written responses on interesting current issues

Some of the topics covered in the course:

- | | |
|--|---------------------------------|
| ▪ What's Next? Thinking about Life after High School | ▪ Waste More/Want More |
| ▪ Fake News and Bias in Reporting | ▪ On Leaving, On Staying Behind |
| ▪ Bored and Brilliant | ▪ Language, Gender, and Culture |
| | ▪ Brave New World (book) |
| | ▪ Othello (play) |

Some reasons why YOU should take the course:

- Meets English requirements for high school graduation
- Meets UC/CSU A-G English requirements
- Provides you with college-level reading and writing
- Helps improve your writing and reading
- Helps expand your knowledge of your society by focusing on current events

Email Ms. Minick at kminick@lodiussd.net, Ms. Xiong at xxiong@lodiussd.net, or see your counselor for more details.